PART I.

Notifications by the Chief Commissioner of Mysore.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 26th November 1880.

No. 132.—The following rules relating to camp equipage, mileage and travelling allowance, are published for general information and will come into force on and after the 1st January 1881.

The new rates of mileage are applicable to all officers in the service. With the exception of officers of the Revenue Survey Department, the new travelling allowances are applicable to all officers serving the Mysore State except those Civil and Military Officers who are in the British Imperial Service and are lent to the Mysore State.

Camp Equipage.

Government tents being supplied for public purposes only, the officers named in the margin when on tour, inspection or jamabandi duty will be limited ordinarily to one or two tents as shewn in the margin, to be conveyed at the public expense, for the accommodation of their offices, with a bichoba for orderlies when necessary, provided that no public building is available for the purpose.

Revenue Commissioner. District Judge. Deputy Commissioner. Military Assistant and Chief or Superintending Engineer.	Two tents, 1 for the officer and the other for his establishment.
Director of Public Instruction. Executive Engineers. Assistant do Deputy and Assistant Conservator of Forests. Assistant Commissioner on Revenue or Police duty.	One single pole tent.
Apothecaries when accompanying a Deputy Commissioner's camp.	A small dispensary tent.

2. In all cases, bills for carriage of Government tents must be supported by a certificate by the officer stating that the tents have been used solely for public purposes and with the memo at present in use shewing the number of officials in camp when a second tent is charged for. When a tent is used either wholly or in part for private accommodation, the carriage must be paid for by the officer himself.

Travelling Allowances.

3. Travelling allowance will be admissible only for journeys beyond a radius of 5 miles from the officers' Head-quarters, provided his halt is reasonable and his presence necessary in camp within the discretion of the superintending officer. The rule which restricts an officer to either daily allowance or mileage for one and the same journey or during the entire period of his absence from Head-quarters on the same occasion, is abolished. Daily allowance will be granted for marches of less than 20 miles in a day. Mileage will be allowed only when a journey of not less than 20 miles is performed in 24 hours. Mileage and daily allowance are not permissible for the same day.

4. During halts the full daily allowance will be granted, provided the officer's camp is not less than ten miles distant from his Head-quarters and provided he has to maintain carriage for his camp equipage. An officer who when so halting is not put to any such expense will be allowed half the daily allowance only.

5. No allowance will be admissible for a continuous halt of more than 10 days at the same place except under the special sanction of the Chief Commissioner or of any officer empowered by him in such cases.

6. The following will be the rates of daily allowance and mileage:—

Secretary to the Chief Commissioner. Military Assistant. Revenue Commissioner. Chief Engineer or Superintending Engineer.	Daily allowance 5 Rs. Mileage 6 annas.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 8th November 1880.

No. 66.—It is hereby notified for public information that all the rights of the present jodidars and kayamguttadars in the undermentioned jodi and kayamgutta villages which have been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shewn in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, and kayamguttadars, will be sold by public auction at the places and on the dates mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the dates specified and the villages will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within 15 days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

3. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

4. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

5. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

6. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner.
